

Families Branching Out Special Event

A Storytelling Show with Songs and Participation of Children and their Families

Join us on Saturday July 28th
10:45-11:30a.m. in Multi-Room B

FREE children's show
(for infant to 6 year olds and their siblings & family)

Featuring teacher Siobhan (Sha-Von) of Mama says Put A Hat On! Productions

A special Families Branching Out program - family literacy event.

Siobhan is a published author, national Storyteller/Singer and local textile artist committed to responsible reconsumption. www.PutaHatOn.com
She works in Childcare at Collingwood Neighbourhood House many childcare centres and at Britannia/Trout Lake/Kerrisdale community centres.

*FAMILIES BRANCHING OUT program - is FREE for member parents, grandparents and caregivers of ALL Cultures with children aged 0-6yrs (and siblings) to have a community meal, make friends, mutually support, share resources, recreation and parenting skills. It runs Mondays at Collingwood via registration with Nancy Sweedler 604-435-0323
sweedler@cnh.bc.ca

All families with at least one child under 6yrs may register with Families Branching Out program.

This storytelling event is inclusive of families with children under 12yrs.